

The Management is Open to your Candid Opinions: Fakolujo Advocates

Professor Olasebikan Fakolujo has charged members of staff to bring forward candid opinions and factual observations as the management is open to receive such opinions and observation for consideration.

Fakolujo stressed the need for dialogue between staff and management from time to time; “I assure you, that the management team has both the interest of the University and that of the Staff at heart, the management is also open to your candid opinions and factual observations”, he reiterated.

Speaking at the first congregation meeting of the year and the first since he assumed duty, Fakolujo said, “we need to tighten our belts and support the financial discipline measure put in place to recover from the seemingly vulnerable position we are currently, and as we continue with the struggle of ensuring academic excellence and financial stability and sustainability, we take this opportunity to thank all staff for their various roles in attaining the milestones we have so far.

While reporting on the achievements of the University in the last six months, the Vice-Chancellor said the wife of late Professor Kola Sonaïke, the 3rd substantive Vice-Chancellor of JABU, Dr. (Mrs.) Omolola Sonaïke, has promised to complete the second part of the Femi Sonaïke Journalism Building donated by the late Prof. Sonaïke.

Prof. O.A. Fakolujo
Vice-Chancellor, JABU

JABU: Second Best at Competition

The students of Microbiology of Joseph Ayo Babalola University (JABU) took 2nd place during the 4th Annual Convention competition for all Microbiology Students held at the Federal University of Technology Akure.

This was contained in a letter of appreciation addressed to the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Olasebikan Fakolujo for his support and encouragement.

The letter which was signed by the Dean of the College, Dr. Damilola Oyedele, the President of the Association of Microbiology Students (JABU chapter), Roseline Agbotuebo and the Secretary, Oluwatosin Olanrewaju reads; “we humbly write this letter on behalf of the students of the above named association to appreciate your support Sir, during the 4th Annual Convention for all Microbiology Students held at Federal University of Technology Akure”.

The letter reads further that, “We were able to attain 2nd position at the Southwest Region. We participated in Spelling Bee competition and also at a presentation, we are indeed very grateful”

